

Georgia in Miniature

1st Day

meeting at the airport, transfer to the hotel, meeting with the guide.

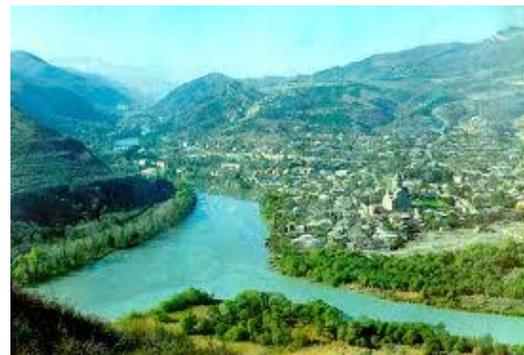

2nd Day. 100 Km.

On this day you see the capital of Georgia - Tbilisi. On the morning with a guide you will explore the old part of town, which doesn't leave without emotion of any tourist. After visiting the old part of the city you will make a brief stop for lunch.

Then we go to visit the ancient capital of Georgia - Mtskheta. Monuments of this charming little city are included in the UNESCO World Heritage Site.

After returning to Tbilisi from Mtskheta you drive up the mountain Mtatsminda where from you can find beautiful panoramic view of Tbilisi. Before dinner at the hotel at your disposal will be nearly three hours of free time.

3rd Day. 300 Km.

on this day you drive to Kakheti - home of wine and winemaking. But at first, on the road to a depth of Kakheti, you visit the rock hewn in the monastery complex of David-Gareja. The monastery is still valid and should dress appropriately.

From David-Gareja you go to the charming city of Kakheti - Signaghi. Georgians call it the city of lovers. The city recently renovated and makes an unforgettable impression on visitors.

Here, in Signaghi you will visit the tasting room of the wine factory and taste different sorts of famous Georgian wine. Upon your return to Tbilisi is waiting for you a wonderful dinner and a walk in the evening in Tbilisi.

4th Day. 350 Km.

On this day you'll go to the north of Tbilisi on the Georgian Military Highway to the hills of the Caucasus Mountains. On the road you will visit the fortress Ananuri with stunning views of the reservoir Zhinvaly and winter resort Gudauri (2196 m), which even in summer enchants guests with an unique landscape.

After Gudauri you arrive in town Stepantsminda at the foot of the mountain Kazbegi (5033 m) and in front of you spectacular view of the tall mountains of the Caucasus. From Stepantsminda you climb up on the off-road cars the hill of mount Kazbegi to take a closer look at a unique Gergeti Trinity Church (2170 m).

Then you return back to Tbilisi, where you have a farewell dinner at a restaurant. But before that you can once again walk around the city to buy souvenirs of your short visit to Georgia. At the end of the banquet, our car will take you back to the airport.
